OTHERWORLDLY PATRON: THE WYRM

This document presents an otherworldly patron option for the warlock class from the Fifth Edition DUNGEONS & DRAGONS Player's Handbook.

This is Playtest Material

The material presented herein is unofficial, draft, playtest content. This material is subject to revision pending playtest feedback and may or may not be appropriate for use in your own campaigns and adventures at your sole discretion.

OTHERWORLDLY PATRON

At 1st level, a warlock gains the Otherworldly Patron feature, striking a bargain with an entity of great or terrible power. This choice grants Warlock features at 1st level and again at 6th, 10th, and 14th level.

THE WYRM

Your patron is among the most ancient of all dragonkind. Untethered from material concerns, your patron seeks to gain influence over the esoteric matters which direct the universe.

Any dragon to achieve a means of traversing the multiverse or to have gain access to power beyond that of mundane dragons could be a Wyrms patron. In Eberron, your patron may be among those dragons closest to grasping the Draconic Prophecy and unlocking its foretelling secrets; In the multiverse of Magic the Gathering, your patron may be an elder dragon like Nicol Bolas, enacting schemes upon ancient schemes.

Draconic Endowment

At 1st level, you have been granted some of the supernatural powers of your patron. As a bonus action, you can manifest this draconic endowment, gaining the following benefits for one minute or until you end the effects as a bonus action:

- You gain draconic claws which are d8 melee weapons. When you attack with the claws, you can use your Charisma modifier, instead of Strength or Dexterity, for the attack and damage rolls.

Your Draconic Endowment

The bestowal of draconic powers can happen by many means. You may have undergone a blood ritual sealing your pact, the dragon may have visited you in your dreams and granted your power through them, or perhaps your abilities were unbound when you remarkably survived the devastating blast of your patron's breath.

The way that you manifest your Draconic Endowment can have many forms. Your claws and scales may physically grow from your body when you manifest them and disappear after; Perhaps they manifest in an ethereal form about you while you gain the benefits of your endowment; You could even choose for them to always be present, merely gaining enhanced power when your endowment is active.

- You gain draconic scales which protect you from harm. Your AC can't be less than 16, regardless of what kind of armor you are wearing.

Expanded Spell List

The Wyrms lets you choose from an expanded list of spells when you learn a warlock spell. The following spells are added to the warlock spell list for you.

Wyrms Expanded Spell List

Spell Level Spells

1st	chromatic orb, wrathful smite
2nd	dragon's breath, see invisibility
3rd	elemental weapon, haste
4th	Leomund's secret chest, staggering smite
5th	commune with nature, skill empowerment

Wyrms Breath

By 6th level, your draconic endowment has altered your being, empowering your very breath with draconic magic.

You can use your breath as a spellcasting focus for spells you cast. Additionally, when you cast a damaging Pact Magic spell that targets only one creature and doesn't have a range of self, you can cause that spell to target each creature in a 30-foot line, or each creature in a 15-foot cone, instead.

Once you use this feature, you can't use it again until you finish a long rest.

Ancient Will

Starting at 10th level, when you would fail a saving throw, you can choose to succeed instead. Once you use this feature, you can't use it again until you finish a long rest.

Master's Form

By the time you reach 14th level, your draconic endowment has come to fruition, granting you powers akin to those of your patron. You the following additional features:

- The claws from your Draconic Endowment feature deal an extra 2d8 acid, cold, fire, lightning, or thunder damage (you choose the damage type when you manifest your draconic endowment).
- Your Dragon's Breath feature can be used twice, instead of once per long rest.

ELDRITCH INVOCATIONS

At 2nd level, a warlock gains the Eldritch Invocation feature. Here is a new option for that feature, in addition to the options in the Player's Handbook and Xanathar's Guide to Everything.

Draconic Weapons

Prerequisite: Pact of the Blade, The Wyrms Patron

The claws bestowed by your Draconic Endowment feature count as pact weapons for you, and can be created using your Pact of the Blade feature, even if you are not currently manifesting your Draconic Endowment.
